Poole Flying Boats Celebration

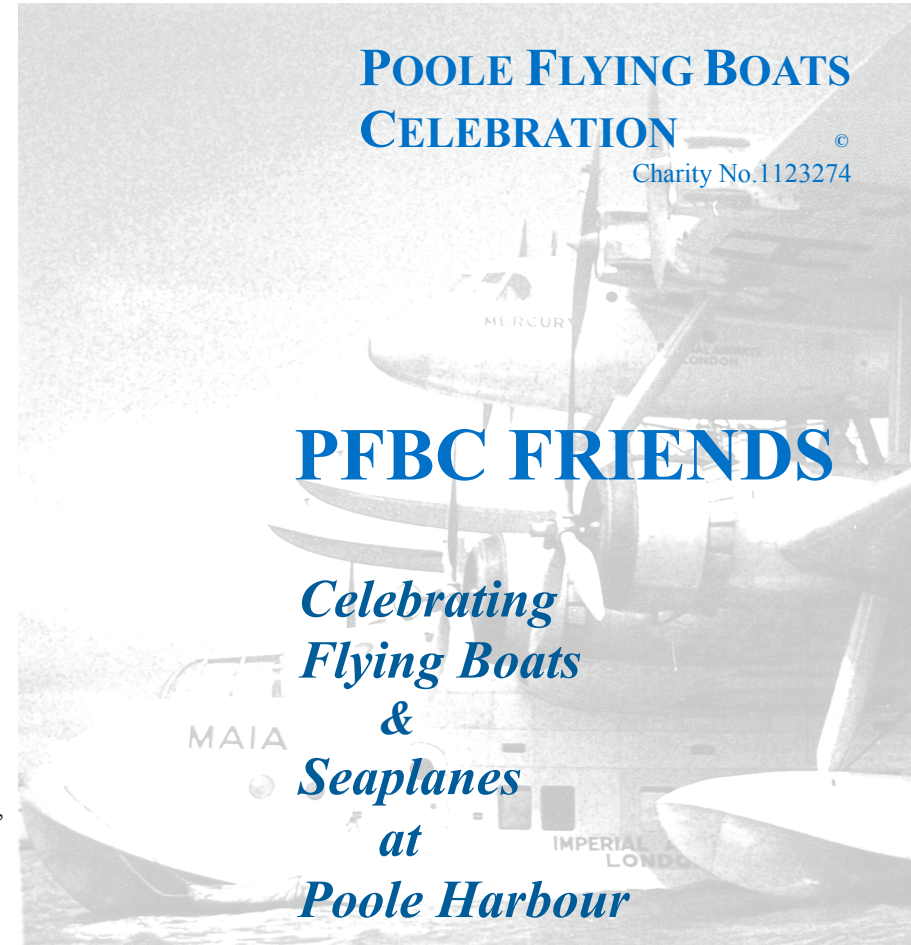

Charity No. 1123274

A summary of what PFBC is Aiming to Achieve

- Progress our public-access Archive so that it becomes a comprehensive collection of important information
- Reach out to those families which were involved in this fascinating period during Poole's rich history
- Identify, and share experiences with those who remember this significant part that Poole played
- Place Poole as a Flying Boat Hub within a worldwide perspective so that links can be formed accordingly
- Develop reciprocal arrangements with other charities /organisations involved with the History of Poole; with the History of Flying Boats both civil & military and Seaplanes; with Social & Transport History of this era relevant to PFBC Archives; and in promoting Tourism locally !
- Engage with others through PFBC's wide range of displays, presentations, materials as an educational resource, forum and website, press releases, articles, publications, and other items
- Arrange and promote Celebrations which are meaningful to PFBC's aims, goals and objectives, which are intrinsic to our charitable remit
